Pullman Seeks Postoffice

PETITIONS ARE CIRCULATED TODAY

A petition requesting the establishing of a branch postoffice at Pullman was put into circulation today. Circulators of the petition intend to secure 200 signatures before sending them to the postmaster general at Washington.

Pullman at the present time is greatly inconvenianced with its rural free delivery, carriers leaving mail on but three streets. Empolyees at the Pullman car shops find it almost impossible to come to the Sixth street postoffice for their mail as they have but thirty minutes in which to do it.

So great is the demand for the postoffice that eighteen signatures were secured within fifteen minutes' time.

Wesley Church Will Hold May Pole Party Tonight

The children and grownups of the Wesley M. E. church Sunday school will make merry tonight at the church. A May pole has been placed on the lawn across the street from the church where the small girls will do the May pole dance. After that all will go to the large basement room of the church which will be made into a depot, with waiting room, baggage room, porters, callers, and matron. A train of twenty automobiles will leave every twenty minutes for a trip to various stations representing a tour of the United States. The officers of the school expect to make this one of the most enjoyable affairs ever planned by the Sunday school for the entertainment of the children.

MIDNIGHT OPERATION FOR STRICKEN WOMAN

Stricken shortly before midnight last night with an acute attack of apendicitis, Mrs. John Wilds, wife of a Pacific Carbon works employee was rushed to the Craven hospital and operated upon. ## U. S. BREAK IS THREATENED

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Gravely apprehensive, Washington today awaits President Wilson's interpretation of Germany's reply, which, it is feared, will cause a break in diplomatic relations.

Officialdom is divided over Berlin's answer. It is admitted, however, that the note is open to two interpretations.

Those arguing that it should prove satisfactory to the administration point out that Germany has changed her order to submarine commanders so specifically that they have been instructed to obey the requirements of international law and also instructed to save all lives except where vessels resist or try to escape.

Those taking the opposite view insist that the concessions are so hinged by conditions that they do not meet the views of the United States and that the president has no alternative, under the note of April 18, but to recall American Ambassador Gerard and to hand County Johann von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, his passports.

PRESIDENT WOODROW WILSON, whose note to Germany regarding submarine warfare has brought back an unfriendly reply.

TAYLOR, SOUGHT HERE IS GIVEN A 7 YEAR TERM

James Wright, alias O. B. Taylor, sought by the police of this city for having passed fictitious checks upon Adolph Winters, a florist was sentenced to seven years at Folsome prison from Napa today by Superior Judge Gesford.

Taylor entered Winters' store three weeks ago at which time he ordered a $100 phonograph. He gave a check for $106 on the Bank of Richmond with the remark that he wished to pay a $10 deposit. Winters asked the man to wait a few seconds and stepped to a telephone. Taylor overheard the florist speaking to the bank and left. The police were immediately notified.

DAN CUPID HOLDS HIS OWN FOR APRIL

(Special to Record-Herald)

MARTINEZ, May 5.—During the month of April Dan Cupid more than held his own. The little champion figured in twenty-two contracts, which is a fine record according to the attaches of the county clerk's office. While Dan was bringing up his couples to the desk he had his eye out for the dissatisfied ones and succeeded in blocking all but eight divorce actions. The number of divorce suits filed was very low for Contra Costa county.

SCHOOL ELECTION TOMORROW, 2 ARE SEEKING POSITION

FIRE SIREN CAUSES THRILL, FALSE ALARM

Firemen swore, late sleepers were suddenly awakened and the entire city excited when the fire siren on the Santa Fe shops toot-tooed for fifteen minutes this morning. It would probably have toot-tooed all day had not a nimble footed Japanese car washer shut it off.

"The darn thing goes off half-cocked like that all the time," stated an employee at the Santa Fe roundhouse. Fire Chief Lamoine is repairing the whistle.

They were found guilty of treason.

James Connolly, of the four leaders of the Irish rebellion recently executed spoke in the streets of this city two years ago.

BOY, PAGE GEORGE ADE, NEW SLANG KING

James Hopkins, a vagrant arrested at the Southern Pacific depot, treated the police court to a discourse in slang today which would have made the illustrious George Ade seem insignificant.

"When they threw that gat at me and ordered me to throw up my hands, why, I just naturally grabbed the sky," said Hapkins in explaining his arrest. Hopkins was given fifteen minutes to leave town.

VILLA NOTHING TO PESKY FLY; BLAKE

Dr. C. R. Blake says: "Villa, the Mexican bandit, is a midget of danger compared to the menace of the bandit fly, the real villain."

The early fly's the one to swat,
It comes before the weather's hot,
And sit around and rubs its legs,
And lays at least ten million eggs;
And every egg will bring a fly
To drive us crazy bye and bye.

MANIAC ATTEMPTS TO FIGHT POLICE WHEN SURROUNDED IN VACANT HOUSE

Barricading himself in a vacant house on Cutting boulevard, William West, supposedly an escaped maniac from the Stockton asylum, attempted to battle Policeman Sam Wright when placed under arrest today.

At the police station West shouted, sang and rolled on the cell floor. He refused to give his name. Police were convinced of his insanity by the Mother Goose rhymes which he repeated.

He will be taken to the county hospital at Martinez tonight and rom there given over to the Stockton authorities.

JUDGE PLACES JIT DRIVER ON PAROLE

From today until such time as he quits the jitney business, Charles Stell, must not allow the police to catch him violating a city ordinance. If he does he will lose $25 which Police Judge Hiram Jacobs is holding. Stell put up the $25 this morning folling his arrest by Policeman Oliver Wylie for driving by a standing street car.

SEC. J. A. LONG HEARS FROM T. D. JOHNSTON ON NEW HIGHWAY

It is understood that the county supervisors to a man are against the Mount Diablo boulevard district plan as arranged by the Burgess land interests and that steps will be taken by the board to dissolve the district which was organized by these same interests some time ago.

The plan was to organize a district and vote bonds for the construction of roads through the holdings of the Burgess land company and under the present vicious law the taxpayers of the county would be compelled to put up 25 per cent of the cost in money from the general road fund of the county. This would mean that each supervisor in the county would have to turn over one-quarter of his road money to this Burgess enterprise.

Of course the people of Richmond protested against the raid on the public treasury by private interests. The city council drafted resolutions of protest and submitted same to the supervisors and the action of the council was followed by a similar protest by the Richmond chamber of commerce. That the protests of these bodies are bearing fruit is evidence by a communication received from District Attorney T. D. Johnston by Secretary J. A. Long, of the chamber of commerce this morning as follows:

Mr. J. A. Long,
Sec'y R. C. of C.
Richmond, Cal.,

My Dear Sir:—Your resolution received and will state, that the board of supervisors are attempting to take such action as will permit the dissolution of the district.

Yours very truly,
T. D. JOHNSTON,
District Attorney of Contra Costa County.

"WHAT I THINK OF CITY," PASTOR'S TOPIC

"A. B. A." Cheques smooth the way of the tourist by furnishing him with a means of carrying his money that is at once entirely safe and exceedingly convenient.

"A. B. A." Cheques are safe, because if not countersigned, they are of use only to the original purchaser, and if lost or stolen, may be replaced upon proper application.

They are convenient, because they are readily accepted by hotels, railroads, auto supply dealers and the best merchants, and are cashed by 50,000 banks; and because the only identification needed is the countersignature of the owner in the presence of the person accepting the Cheques.

BOND COMPANY TO BE SUED FOR BANK LOSS

(Special to Record-Herald)

MARTINEZ, May 5.—Officials of the Danville branch of the San Ramon Valley bank were in Martinez Wednesday afternoon arranging for the filing of suit in the near future against the National Surety company to recover the sum of $5,439 which disappeared from the bank safe last October and for which John DeMartini was accused, tried and found not guilty by a jury several weeks ago.

The National Surety company was on DeMartini's bond and it was to be a passive representative of this company that Attorney Skiff was in attendance at the trial. President Numa S. Boone and Cashier Norman E. Bennett were down from San Ramon and Walnut Creek on Wednesday looking after the matter of preliminaries to filing the suit.

CONSTANCE COLLIER AT RICHMOND TONIGHT

"The Colonel's Lady and Judy O'Grady were sisters under the skin!"

This title in the Morosco screen drama "The Code of Marcia Gray" coming to the Richmond theater tonight on the Paramount program precedes a strong and unusual scene.

The defrauded workman's daughter waiting outside the Gray mansion for the appearance of Gray's wife, intercepts her and lashes her with her tongue until the taut nerves of the much burdened gentlewoman weaken under this additional load. As Marcia sways in a half-faint the compassion and pity that is ever responsive in a woman's breast filled the wronged lass and ennobled her to forgive and comfort the one she came to abuse.

Such scenes of human interest and reality fill this powerful play of modern ambitious life.

Besides the Pathe News pictures and "The Code of Marcia Gray" the Richmond theater offers the one reel American Starlight comedy, "Gleeful Guardians, guaranteed funmaker.

A Bit of FANCY WORK For Your Leisure Hours

For a trip to the country, the cozy afternoons of the home porch, or the few hours' chat over the needle with your neighbor, the bit of fancy-work is indispensable. Completed, and put away, December 24th holds no terrors, for much can be accomplished in this direction toward the Christmast gifts, and their summer making means unworried leisure later in the year.

Then, too, there are so many things to make up for the summer home; washable cushion covers, warranted to stand a splashing in the canoe or countless tumbles from the hammock—you can't have too many of these, or to make more comfortable the hickory porch chairs. Many dainty pieces of lingerie await a bit of embroidery to transform them into lovely garments.

In all the package goods, Busilla, Pacific and Royal, this section (second floor, to the left of elevator), is well stocked. All the tatting and crochet cottons, in every shade and quality, are here to meet the prevailing fancy-work craze. Free lessons given from 9 to 5 to purchasers of materials in crochet, tatting and embroidery stitches.

Wash Dresses for Morning or Afternoon Wear

HOUSE DRESSES in tub materials are the demand of the hour, and the busy housewife and mother feels hardly justified in taking time to make even the simplest, when such trim, dainty dresses can be bought at a figure that little more than covers cost of material.

Beginning with the always neat percale or gingham, carefully fashioned, with generous width of skirt, yet easily laundered, Capwells stock is replete with surprises, at prices ranging from $1.25 to $3.50.

At $2.95 is one of the prettiest French Ginghams ever shown; in itself the fabric, with its pastel-shaded stripes, is most attractive; but when one notices the fine smocking used on shoulders and cuffs, the plain color bands with button trimming, the fine edging, the garments really need nothing more to transfer them to a discriminating woman's wardrobe.

In all white, with pleated fronts, are shown some very trim gowns in poplin with white hemstitched organdy collars and cuffs. These are to be had in all sizes, as also the fine Madras dresses in new stripe effects, and a design in white Panama cloth, with a touch of color in the narrow blue bands on collar, cuffs and handkerchief pocket. A sailor-knotted tie completes a gown that would grace a canoe. These range in price from ..... $2.75 to $3.50

Utility House Dresses

A favorite house dress with women because it does double service and saves laundry bills. The front of the dress is interchangeable. It is easy to slip on, is made of fine quality ginghams and percales and looks very neat and attractive ..... $1.25 to $2.50

Porch Dresses

Sheer Lawn Porch Dresses in wide stripes and pretty colors for morning or afternoon wear, suitably harmonizing with the summery effect of shaded porch and afternoon tea table, are made with long sleeves, belts and pretty touches on collars. They are favorite purchases at $2.50

Middy Blouses

That universal feminine garment, the Middy Blouse, now holds the stage, and will continue to do so to the end of summer. All the new styles in both plain and striped effects, and in designs never before shown.

At $1.25 is the middy of striped galatea, in black and white, gray and white, blue, pink. Then there is the Panama cloth in tan, with handkerchief pocket, contrasting lacing, a chic little affair at the same low price; and a navy blue, with white braid trimming and plenty of all-white.

The awning-stripe cotton crepes in gold, tan, green and all wanted colors have the novel touch of a lacing at the side and solid-colored band around teh bottom. These are $1.50.

Middies with the wide blazer stripe may be had in all colors in crepe and sateen. The cut is coat style, belted, with deep sailor collar, button-over pockets at belt, collar, cuffs and pocket revers in stitched white. An orange and black, elbow-sleeve middy is striking, and has all the accessories mentioned above. Price—$1.95.

WOMEN'S CLUBS SEE LESSON IN CRUCIBLE

The danger points that mark the path of ambition like milestones are plainly indicated in the screen drama called "Love's Crucible" according to Mrs. Belle B. Brooklyns of the Amalgamated Association of International Woman Clubs, who recommends that every woman and girl see the film play and that every father, brother and lover do the same. Mrs. Brooklyns pointed out in a recent lecture that the dangers that beset Myra Dymsley in the photoplay are real and actual ones encountered by every unsophisticated girl who insists upon leaving home to follow out an artistic career.

"Too many studios in New York are merely dens of vice masquerading under the name of respectability," declares Mrs. Brookyns.

"Love's Crucible" is declared by Jules Eckert Goodman, from whose drama "The Point of View" is taken, to be an earnest effort to exterminate the evil to which Mrs. Brookyns refers. The drama, which was a huge success resulted in a tremendous agitation opposed to men of the alleged artist type such as Robert Lawton in the screen play who makes their "studios" haunts of evil.

Love's Crucible will be shown at the Regent theater Saturday.
